

ORGANIZATION NAME AND WORKING FILMS PRESENT:

COAL ASH STORIES

Imagine being afraid to drink your water, take a bath, fish, or farm. Coal Ash Stories is a series of four short films that illustrate the public health concerns, policy issues, and ways communities are responding to this toxic waste. The series is informing residents and drawing attention to the toxic impact of coal ash on communities.

A COUPLE SENTENCES ABOUT THE LOCAL/STATEWIDE COAL ASH FIGHT IN YOUR COMMUNITY. INCLUDING INFORMATION ON WHY PEOPLE SHOULD COME TO THIS EVENT/WHAT YOU HOPE TO ACCOMPLISH.

CITY
DAY OF WEEK, DATE, TIME.

Address Line One
Address Line Two
Hosted by: List all host organizations

For more info please visit:
(website/RSVP link)

WORKING FILMS